

Kai Amberla

Executive Director Finland Festivals - Finland

Master World Literature and Musicology

On graduating from university with a MA degree in world literature and musicology and completing his training in classical guitar at the conservatoire, Kai Amberla (b. 1962) spent a few years teaching.

Rondo magazine

In 1989 he gave up "working as an honest musician" in favour of journalism on Finland's only professional classical music magazine, Rondo, and remained its Editor-in-Chief until 1995, when he was invited to assume the post of Executive Director of the Association of Finnish Symphony Orchestras.

Executive Director Fimic

In 2002 Kai Amberla was appointed as Executive Director in the Finnish Music Information Centre (Fimic).

Finland Festival

In 2007 he decided to move on to become the Executive Director of Finland Festivals, a collaboration forum for Finland's leading cultural events, with nearly one hundred affiliated events.

Kai Amberla is also a consultant to a number of music foundations and organisations.

