

Vivian Vincent

Vintess Innovation Entertainment - France

Miss Vivian VINCENT is the Founder of Vintess Innovation Entertainment in France. She began her career as an event promoter with a focus on African Music and Cultures in Europe; as well as creating social awareness through cultural exchange, educating and supporting young talents in communities through the internet and social mediums.

In March 2012, She founded Vintess Innovation Entertainment France. The same year, she founded Vintess Innovation Entertainment Nigeria Limited.

She also Co-Founding of Dream Builders Movement a Motivational and Inspirational Movement for youth in Africa and the Owner of Talent Unmasked Project.

In May 2014, she founded Vintess Innovation Organization France/Nigeria. The Ower Project Festivals" New Africa Needs Change" is a movement for young generations to gain opportunities for betterment and a good future for every youth in all societies. She has worked for France Bénévolat, Unicef France, and other Associations that help fight against Human Trafficking in France. She is a member of 15 Syndicate in the French music industry.

Her first official single "One of a Kind" was released on February 5th, 2013, and hit Top 200 chart and Top 50 chart in the USA. The second single" WET" April 8th, 2013, which went viral. November 20th, 2014, she released "Peace and Unity" also went viral and had worldwide radio Airplay, charted for 8 weeks in Top100 on iTunes music. She released the original single "Concentrate" went viral and hit worldwide radio, the song was remixed by (Gradur) which was released 27th November 2015 by Universal Music France. Miss Vivian VINCENT specialization includes but not limited to Managing Artists, Music Promoter, Music Producer, Event Promoter, Discovery new Talents. Interested in Humanitarian work, Talent search in communities, promoting peace around the world.