

Lorenzo Pappagallo

Consultant, Theatre & Dance Curator and Producer – France/Italy

Lorenzo is a French- Italian freelance performing arts curator & producer based in Madrid and collaborating since 2014 with different international art institutions to foster the interchange of Spanish and European artists and to draft the programming of festivals and multidisciplinary artistic seasons.

Recent collaborations were the curation of Paris-Madrid Tandem with both City Councils and the programming and coordination of the Spanish Focus in Tbilisi (Georgia) in the framework of the 22nd edition of the GIFT FESTIVAL apart from organizing touring and partnerships with Festivals and Universities in Europe, United States and several Latin American countries like Uruguay, Mexico, Colombia and Argentina.

Among the most ambitious projects he has been developing in the last few years, is the commission by the Spanish UNESCO World Heritage Sites Group of curating and coordinating the performing arts Festival ESCENA PATRIMONIO for the period 2018-2022.

The Festival came into being a section of the Heritage Night, an unprecedented cultural event which takes place annually simultaneously in the 15 Spanish World Heritage Cities with free access to world class performing arts shows, museums, historic sights and participative activities for visitors and locals all night long.

