

Katharina Eva Wolfrum

Founder Theaterbüro München - Germany

Katharina Wolfrum is part of the Theaterbüro München. This is an initiative supporting and advising independent artists in Munich by providing one-to-one-counsel as well as workshops on fundraising, project management or rhetoric.

Her background is in theatre studies as well as cultural management in general. She studied in Munich, Stockholm and Berlin and she worked in Orenburg (Russia) as cultural mediator before she started working in the independent performing arts scene in Munich.

The Theaterbüro München as well as her other projects are located in the Kreativquartier München, an area developed by the municipality to offer space for various creative & cultural projects and initiatives.
