

Seong Hee Kim

Artistic Curator and Producer, Professor at the Kaywon Art University and former Artistic Director Asia Culture Centre Theater (ACC Theater)

Kaywon Art University

Currently Professor at the Kaywon Art University in South Korea, Seong Hee Kim is an independent artistic curator and producer who has produced and collaborated with world-renown artists.

Asia Culture Center Theatre

Former Artistic director of the Asia Culture Center Theater, she contributed to the one of the most ambitious and momentous art project in Korean history in terms of budget, artistic vision, and spatial scale. Based in the newly constructed theatre complex, the ACC Theater aspires to become the hub theatre for the production, presentation, discussion, and international distribution of the most cutting-edge works in the context of the international performing arts scene.

MODAFE

Spring Wave Festival

Festival Bom

From 2002 to 2005, she was the programming director at the International Modern Dance Festival also known as MODAFE, and in 2007 she co-founded Spring Wave Festival, where she also became the artistic director.

In 2008, Seong Hee Kim also founded Festival Bom and served as the artistic director until 2013. William Forsythe and Romeo Castelluci are amongst the globally well-known contemporary artists that she has been introducing to Korea, and she is consistently discovering artists of the young generation and producing their new works.

