

Annet Lekkerkerker

Managing Director Holland Festival – The Netherlands

ZTHollandia

Stadsschouwburg

Amsterdam

Holland Festival

Annet Lekkerkerker has extensive experience as a manager in the Dutch arts and cultural sector. From 1998 to 2002, she worked alongside director Johan Simons, first as director of marketing and communications and later as managing director for ZTHollandia. From 2002 to 2009, Annet Lekkerkerker was Head of Programming at the Stadsschouwburg Amsterdam, The Netherlands' most prestigious theatre, developing the artistic strategy and planning for the new auditorium. Since October 2009 she has been Managing Director of the Holland Festival, the foremost performing arts festival in The Netherlands. She collaborates with artistic directors Pierre Audi (until 2014) and Ruth Mackenzie (since 2014). Annet Lekkerkerker sits on various Boards and Supervisory Boards and chairs the Amsterdam Cultural Coalition.